

Communication and Interaction Interventions

Talkabout™ Intervention

the Talkabout™ Programme developed by Alex Kelly, aims to enhance your child's ability to interact effectively with peers and adults, fostering better social relationships.

The Talkabout™ Programme focuses on key areas such as understanding social cues, improving conversational skills, and enhancing self-awareness. Through engaging activities and role-playing scenarios, your child will develop practical strategies to navigate social situations with confidence.