

		Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
Year 11	Focus:	Britain Power and the People	Britain Power and the People	Elizabethan England	Elizabethan England
	Assessment:	Medieval and Early Modern Overview Test	Factors Question Assessment Mock Exam 1	Historic Environment study	Mock Exam 2

CEIAG: Emphasis on changes in career opportunities ( women's suffrage) Examination of leadership qualities in a historical context. Development of communication and analysis skills. Debate and argument skills. Processing information to form judgements. Connections made to political careers through study of political institutions and voting rights.

SMSC: Study of political choice and freedoms. Study of impact of religious changes on society. Changes to minority rights and workers rights in the UK. Power and the People unit examines the changing role of individuals in our society.

Enrichment: Site Study (Changes each year)

British Values: Individual rights/ democracy through Power and People course. Tolerance of diff/ cultural and religions– Study of how religion can drive change. Mutual Respect– Study of increased freedoms for all groups within the UK from medieval times to modern day. Rule of Law– study of legal change resulting in freedoms and unjust laws (Factory Acts etc).

Year 10	Focus:	USA: Opportunity and Inequality 1920-1970	USA: Opportunity and Inequality 1920-1973	Conflict and Tension: The Cold War 1945-1972	Conflict and Tension: The Cold War 1945-1972	Conflict and Tension: The Cold War 1945-1972	Britain Power and the People
	Assessment:	Boom Assessment	Bust Assessment	End of Unit Test	Year 10 Mock Exam		End of Cold War Unit Test

CEIAG: Emphasis on changes in gender equality and employment opportunities in USA. Examination of leadership qualities in a historical context. Development of communication and analysis skills. Debate and argument skills. Processing information to form judgements. Connections made to political careers through study of political institutions and elections.

SMSC: Civil rights in USA how groups fought for equality. Morality of conflict, tactics in Vietnam and nuclear weapons. Study of social change in 1920's America particularly immigration policies. Racial and economic inequalities studied in USA. Study of different political ideologies and their impact on societies (anarchism/ communism/capitalism). Temperance movement studied in addition to religious restrictions in USSR.

Enrichment: Berlin trip

British Values: Individual rights/ democracy through Civil Rights. Freedoms in societies studied through political ideologies. Tolerance of diff/ cultural and religions– Study of how groups can be excluded from society. Mutual Respect (Lack of)-Treatment of African Americans/Jim Crow Laws/ Segregation/ Native Americans/ Immigrants. Rule of Law– study of legal change resulting in freedoms and unjust laws.

Focus
Historical Skills	Early Modern	Thematic Study
Medieval	Modern	Depth Study